Muzrai Secretary's Remarks.

Notwithstanding the very efficient checks exercised by the Palace Officer and his personal supervision, the cost of feeding [illegible]s and giving rations to Bhyrarees during the last Dasara has amounted to the very large sum of Rs 1,896-7-2;

Muzrai Secretariat. | File No. of 190

owing not only to the very large numbers who resorted to the Chattram both from the Mysore City and from outside, but also to the high rates of provisions prevailing this year. The allowance of Rs 7,000 per annum or Rs 583/- per mensem made for feeding purposes at the Mysore Chattram, where people are fed twice a day, is barely sufficient for the want of pilgrims, of Nehimidars and of 30 students from the Sanskrit College, and no separate provision is made in the Tasdik Patti of the Chattram for the extra expenses connected with the Dasara festivities. Last year's excess of Rs 970/- was graciously sanctioned by His Highness the Maharaja and charged to the savings of the Chattram. If the cost incurred in the present year, viz., Rs 1,896-7-2, be also similarly charged to the savings of Rs 2,356-14-8, the balance will dwindle down to Rs 460-7-6, while extensive repairs have to be effected to the Chattram buildings and the purchase of two small gardens close to the Chattram which render the building quite damp and injurious has to be effected. Under these circumstances, I very respectfully beg to submit that the present bill for ₹ 1,696-7-0 may be kindly sanctioned from Government funds as an additional grant from the State, leaving the savings of the institution intact for permanent improvements.

Further, the time has, in my humble opinion, arrived for framing a permanent provision for this feeding which has to be necessarily conducted as Anna Sânti during the days on which His Highness the Maharaja sits on the Throne at Dasara time. It is therefore very respectfully submitted that a sum of ₹ 1,500/- may be ordered to be provided from State Funds annually in the Budget for this purpose in addition to the existing Taxdik of the Chatram which amounts to ₹ 17,950/- as per particulars given below :-

1. Para Gharani Charity for the blind, the deaf and dumb and other infirm and destitute persons. . ₹ 9,000.
2. Brahmin Chatram including Sadavarth Bojanams, 7,000.
3. Chattram Establishment . . . . . ,, 1,700.
4. Annual repairs to Chatram buildings, vessels etc 150.
5. Contingencies . . . . . 100.

The expenditure incurred during the last Dassara for feeding Brahmins and giving rations to Bhyragis, has amounted to ₹1,896-7-2, owing to the large number of people that resorted to the Mysore Chattram and to the high rates of provisions which prevailed this year. The Muzrai Secretary solicits that this amount may be sanctioned as an additional grant from State funds, as the present savings of the Chattram, ₹2,356-14-8, are required for certain improvements to be effected to the Chattram building.

He also proposes that a permanent provision of ₹1,500, may be made, from State funds, annually in future Budgets to meet this expenditure. Both these proposals seem very reasonable. Sanction may be graciously accorded to the additional grant of ₹1,896-7-2, for meeting the expenditure already incurred, and to the [illegible]

£1,500, being provided in future Budgets.

The allotment for feeding Brahmins and giving Sadavart to Bhairagees in H.H. the Maharaja's Chattram at Mysore is Rs.583/- per mensem, and the excess expenditure incurred on account of feeding the large number of persons resorting to the Chattram during the Dasara season has hitherto been met from the savings of the Chattram. Notwithstanding the very efficient checks exercised by the Palace Officer under his personal supervision, the cost of feeding during the Dasara of 1905 is reported to have amounted to the large sum of 1896-7-2 owing not only to the great number of persons who resorted to the Chattram on the occasion both from the Mysore City and from outside, but also to the high prices of provisions which prevailed at the time. The allowance of Rs.7000 per annum made for feeding purposes at the Chattram, where people are fed twice a day, is barely sufficient for the wants of the pilgrims of the Nehimidars, and of the poor students from the Sanskrit College(30-in number) who are daily fed in the Chattram, and no separate provision exists in the Tasdik Patti of the Chattram for the extra expenses connected with the Dasara festivities

The Palace Officer recommends that as in former years, the excess expenditure of ₹1896-7-4 inourred during the last Dasara be met from the savings of ₹2356-14-8 available at the credit of the Chattram. The Secretary to Government in the Huzrai Department ,however points out that if this large expenditure be charged to the above savings, the balance will dwindle down to 460 — while extensive repairs to the Chattram building and the purchase and improvement of two small gardens close to the Chattram which render the building quite damp and insanitary, have to be effected.

2. In these circumstances the Government are pleased to direct that the amount of excess expenditure above referred to, viz, ₹1896-7-4 be sanctioned as an additional grant from the State, leaving the savings of the institution in fact ~~for~~ for permanent improvements. The bill received from the Palace Officer is herewith forwarded to the Comptroller to Government for audit and payment, charging the cost as directed above.

3. The Government are further pleased to direct that with the view of permanently providing for this extra feeding which has to be necessarily conducted as Anna Santi during the Dasara festivities, a sum of ₹1500/- be provided from State Funds annually in the Budget for this purpose in addition to existing Tasdik of the Chattram which amounts to ₹17,950 as particularized below:-
